

FACULTY OF HEALTH SCIENCES NOVO MESTO

organises

the 3rd scientific symposium with international participation

INTERDISCIPLINARY COOPERATION FOR THE TRANSFER OF KNOWLEDGE BETWEEN THEORY AND PRACTICE

The scientific symposium will be held on 24 October 2013

at the Faculty of Health Sciences Novo mesto, Na Loko 2, Novo mesto

Purpose of the Symposium

A human is a being who is capable of abstract thinking and has physical, psychological, social and spiritual problems and needs that are solved or met by means of interdisciplinary approaches due to their connections and complexity. Interdisciplinary approaches mean the cooperation among specialists in various fields, who work towards common goals and believe that separate disciplines are not capable of solving specific essential problems experienced by people in the actual environment.

The symposium will be participated by experts from Slovenia and abroad, and the official languages are Slovene, Croatian and English.

We kindly invited you to actively participate.

The topics with which you will participate in the symposium should deal with all the aspects of interdisciplinary cooperation, the connections between theory and practice, the transfer of knowledge and teamwork.

Important dates for the authors of articles:

Abstract submission	10 September 2013
Article submission	10 October 2013

We also invite master's students and their mentors to actively participate in the symposium. The author of an article should be an individual student rather than two students or a group.

The accepted abstracts of articles will be published in the book of abstracts, whereas the whole articles will be published in the proceedings of the symposium. The condition for the publication of an article in the proceedings of the symposium with international participation is that the author or co-author presents the article at the symposium. Each author can register only one article.

All the selected articles will undergo a blind review process and will be published in the proceedings of the scientific symposium.

The title of your article (up to 70 characters with spaces) and your abstract (up to 1200 characters with spaces), including keywords, should be sent by e-mail to: dekanat@vs-nm.si or to the address: Fakulteta za zdravstvene vede Novo mesto, Na Loko 2, 8000 Novo mesto, on the submitted form.

The registration fee for participation in the scientific symposium:

Type of participation	registration
Participation	€120
Participation – student	€80
